

COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION IN SWEDEN

FIFTH EDITION

Finn Madsen, Madsen Lawfirm

“Commercial Arbitration in Sweden provides us all with a valuable and up-to-date understanding of the Swedish System in operation and a comprehensive commentary on the SCC Rules, both new and existing. World business has the means through this work to see why Sweden and Stockholm are good choices for their international arbitrations.”

—PHILLIP CAPPER, partner and Head of International Arbitration at White & Case LLP in London and Former Chairman of the Faculty of Law at the University of Oxford. Phillip Capper is also Nash Professor of Engineering Law at King’s College London.

This new Fifth Edition incorporates all recent developments in Swedish arbitration law up to 1 March 2019, including the changes to the Swedish Arbitration Act and the rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce.

KEY FEATURES

- The author, a recognized expert and practitioner both as arbitrator and counsel in arbitrations in Sweden, provides an insider’s view of arbitration under the Swedish Arbitration Act (SAA) and the Rules of the Arbitration Institute.

More comments about the book:

“By providing thorough and up-to-date descriptions and analysis, this book plays an important role in enhancing the understanding of international arbitration in Sweden among non-Swedish parties and their counsel.”

—ANNETTE MAGNUSSON, Secretary General of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce

“Useful for anyone who is called upon to render advice with respect to arbitration in Sweden.”

—HANS CORELL, Under Secretary-General for Legal Affairs and the Legal Counsel of the United Nations March 1994 – March 2004

“Belongs on the shelves of every lawyer or arbitrator who has a serious interest in arbitration in Sweden” and “Provides the international audience with new sources of arbitration law for analyzing issues and resolving problems that arise in arbitration regardless of the jurisdiction.”

—DR. PATRICIA SHAUGHNESSY, supervisor of the Master of International Commercial Law Program at Stockholm University

“Will be welcomed by the arbitration community as it contains a thorough analysis of the new Arbitration Act and provides useful comments on the 2017 SCC Arbitration Rules.”

—AVOCAT JOSÉ ROSELL, Independent Arbitrator

“The book fills an important task [...] and contributes to a deeper understanding of the structure, practical application and the function in society of arbitration.”

—PETER WESTBERG, Professor of Civil Procedure, University of Lund

“The book offers also a wealth of excellent research information. Hopefully, his book will see numerous updates and regular re-editions with a view of becoming the classic it deserves to be.”

—BENGT ÅKE JOHANSSON, White & Case

“There can be no doubt that the book will be a most useful tool for anyone involved in arbitration in Sweden.”

—MICHAEL BOGDAN, Professor of International and Comparative Law, University of Lund

“Readily available, comprehensive and up to date information is important if not necessary... It gives a comprehensive and current account of arbitration law and practice in Sweden, including the rules and practice of SCC.”

—ULF FRANKE, former Secretary General of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce and former President of the International Federation of Commercial Institutions (IFCIA)

“The author has not only undertaken painstaking research into Swedish legal sources published in the English language but also tied Swedish legal and arbitration rules into the mainstream of other comparative legal materials. This book is an essential work of reference for non-Swedish practitioners and arbitrators in Swedish arbitrations.”

—Arbitration International
