SCC SEMINAR

MAKING ARBITRATION USER-FRIENDLY:
NEW TOOLS AND PROCEDURES IN SCC 2017 RULES

The Embassy of Sweden in Moscow and the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce Arbitration Institute are pleased to invite you to an international seminar in Moscow on 16 February 2017. The seminar will take place at the conference hall of the Embassy.

On 1 January 2017 new version of the SCC Arbitration Rules will enter into force. While maintaining continuity of what could be described as the essence of an SCC arbitration, the new SCC Arbitration Rules introduce a number of noteworthy revisions and innovations aimed at efficiency and expeditiousness of arbitral proceedings. The purpose of this seminar is to discuss procedural cost and time saving mechanisms that can make arbitration more user-friendly.

The seminar will conclude with a Moscow premier of the film
“The Quiet Triumph: How Arbitration Changed the World”

The seminar will be held in English and is free of charge. For additional information and registration please contact Ms. Ekaterina Alexeeva, ekaterina.alexeeva@gov.se
