

THE QUIET TRIUMPH

HOW ARBITRATION CHANGED THE WORLD

SCREENING AT WASHINGTON, D.C
3 OCTOBER 2017, 18.00 - 20.30

DECHERT LLP CONFERENCE ROOM C&D , 1900 K STREET NW, WASHINGTON, D.C 20006

The Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce (SCC) and Dechert LLP in Washington D.C. invite you to a screening of the documentary
The Quiet Triumph - How Arbitration Changed the World.

The success of international arbitration is generally only understood by the actors working within it and now is the time to make an unknown story known. For many centuries, international arbitration has played an important role in enabling peaceful and constructive relationships among states.

The Quiet Triumph tells the story of international arbitration, with events in Sweden in the foreground. It features interviews with central players who experienced the ground-breaking developments first hand, and whose skills and integrity contributed to making the world a better place.

Light refreshment will be provided.
Doors open at 18.00 and the movie starts at 19.00.
Please RSVP by 29 September 2017 through link below:
